NATIONAL SPORTS CENTER FOR THE DISABLED
HONORED AS A DENVER BUSINESS JOURNAL
2025 PARTNERS IN PHILANTHROPY

DENVER— Oct. 10, 2025 - The National Sports Center for the Disabled (NSCD) announced today they have been selected as a 2025 honoree of the Denver Business Journal's (DBJ) Partners in Philanthropy award. NSCD was recognized in the nonprofit category for its outstanding commitment to inclusion, adaptive recreation and community impact at the DBJ event on Oct. 9, 2025.

"We are honored to receive a DBJ Partner in Philanthropy award this year," said Julie Taulman, President and CEO of NSCD. "This recognition reflects the heart of our mission, to break down barriers and create life-changing opportunities for people of all abilities. We're grateful to our staff, volunteers donors, and community partners who make this work possible every day."

This annual DBJ Partners in Philanthropy recognition celebrates organizations that demonstrate exceptional leadership in corporate social responsibility and philanthropic engagement across the Denver metro area. The NSCD was selected for its decades-long dedication to empowering individuals with disabilities through adaptive outdoor sports recreation along the front range and in the high country.

About the National Sports Center for the Disabled

The National Sports Center for the Disabled has been a leading provider of adaptive outdoor recreation experiences for the past 55 years. They are committed to helping individuals with disabilities, their caregivers and the broader community rethink ability. Through the power of adaptive innovation, recreation and Colorado's great outdoors, we are transforming lives, families and communities and creating a world that celebrates each person's abilities. Our exhilarating adaptive outdoor experiences help participants make the very most of their passion, their talents and their aspirations. They discover a renewed sense of confidence, reignite the pure joy of play, and find motivation to try new things, meet new people and believe in their own abilities. With industry-leading adaptive equipment, renowned coaches, instructors and volunteers and unmatched mountain and metro programs, we change the perceptions of athletes of all levels and help them, and the world, #RethinkAbility.
